

Bruno Wyngroski

Bruno has been an Acquisition Professional since June, 1974. In 2008 Bruno transitioned to a trainer and consultant. He has provided a wide spectrum of classes to include contracting officer, COR and fund certifying officer training. Clients included Army Contracting Command, Federal Investigative Services, FEMA, Indian Health Services, Bonneville Power Authority, Army Intelligence and Security Command, FAI, GSA and Health and Human Services, Department of Labor, and the USAF. His specialty areas include acquisition teaming, appropriations law, Simplified Purchases, CICA, contract modifications, claims, funding, Government Purchase Card, Purchase Commitment and Contracting Process, FAR Immersion, and Emergency Contracting. Bruno retired August 2008 as the highest rated and ranked Professor of Contract Management at Defense Acquisition University-South Campus in Huntsville Alabama (DAU). Bruno joined DAU in 2002 and is a DAU certified instructor for Level I, II, and III contracting classes. Bruno also participated in outreach support to include Best Value, Source Selection, Performance Based Acquisitions, Proper Contract Documentation, Contracting Officer Representative, Effective Contract Planning and Management, Detection and Prevention of Contract Crime, Uniform Contract Format, Contracting Officer Representative, Federal Appropriations Law, and Business Processes and Opportunities for the Reconstruction of Iraq and Afghanistan. Prior to Federal service Bruno taught college Economics courses and was a Director for Davenport University-Pontiac Campus. His Federal Career began in 1974 and duty assignments include Army Tank-Automotive Command in Warren, Michigan, Contracting Officer for Naval Regional Contracting Center-Naples, Italy; Professor and Course Manager for Army Logistics Management College, School of Acquisition Management, at Fort Lee, Virginia; Director of Contracts for U. S. Army Contracting Command-Seckenheim, Germany; Director of Office of Acquisition for Seventh Signal Army Command at Fort Ritchie, Maryland; Technical Director for Procurement and Contracting for U. S. Navy Seventh Fleet at Regional Contracting Center-Singapore, and Unlimited Contracting Officer and Supervisory Contract Specialist for U. S. Naval Military Sealift Command in Washington, D. C.

Bruno has completed the Army Leadership and Management Program (LOGAMP) and was selected for the Defense Leadership and Management Program. He has a Bachelor's Degree from University of Detroit, with a major in Economics and minors in German and Philosophy, and a master's degree from U of D in Economics and Education. Bruno has provided training seminars for GSA Expo and National Contract Management Association World Congress and published professional articles.