

Dr. Andre Leyva

President, and founder of the Psychology Center in Montgomery County, Maryland. Nationally recognized trainer, consultant, and Key Note Speaker. International presenter in Canada, South America and Eastern Europe. Member of National Association of Hispanic Psychologists. Board Member of the Montgomery County Mental Health Commission. Cited in Who's Who of American Psychologists.

Dr. Leyva is a recognized Subject Matter Expert in Diversity, EEO, Cross-Cultural Communication, Team Building, Supervision, and other topics. Also, expert at assessment tools and applications to Conflict Resolution to “real world” work settings. His doctoral dissertation on “Conflict Resolution” when published, was requested by mental health professionals across Europe and South America. He currently writes for two family magazines and has authored numerous professional articles and books.

Dr. Leyva developed a multi-cultural training program at Head Start in Maryland and Washington, DC, and served as Clinical Director for a mental health facility in Northern Virginia. His current Diversity and Conflict Resolution work includes a series of customized “Moving From Conflict To Collaboration” workshops for the Pentagon, US Department of Commerce, and Voice of America, in Washington, DC.