

Teri Saff, M.Ed, MS

Teresita Saff a consultant to organizations developing, coordinating, brokering, executing and evaluating managerial training and development programs in many areas, including: CQI, Managerial Leadership, Performance Management, Progressive Discipline, Manager Orientation, Drug Testing, Communication Skills, Managing Multiple Priorities, Dealing with Difficult People, Cross-Cultural and Diversity Issues. Cultural Diversity.

Ms. Saff is also a part-time instructor for Johns Hopkins, University of Maryland, Galludet University, Carroll Community College, and Coppin State in the areas of Total Quality Management, Managerial Communication, Spanish, Abnormal Psychology, Development Psychology, General Psychology, and Introduction to Special Education.

Ms. Saff is a training professional and Organization Development consultant (OD) with design, development, presentation, and administrative experience. A highly trained and expert consultant in the field of Human Resource Development (HRD), professionally trained and experienced in group process consultation and group facilitation skills.

Ms. Saff is a highly skilled trainer in the areas of program development, presentation, and evaluation skills with 12 years experience in training and education. Skills include the creation and use of needs assessment instruments, focus groups, diversity programming, team building, and Train-the-Trainer materials.